

There was a brief period when an additional Government Resident (Central Australia) was appointed to be based in Alice Springs. Note: Alice Springs was known as Stuart town from 1888 to 1933.

John Charles Cawood

Employment History:

District Forester and sawmiller
President Bellingen Shire Council NSW
Coroner and Magistrate
Appointed Government Resident of Central Australia
15 December 1926
Oversaw 1928 Inquiry into actions of Constable
Murray's punitive expeditions against Aborigines at
Conniston Station following killing of European settler
Resigned November 1929
Retired to Cronulla NSW

Victor George Carrington

Employment History:

Deputy to John Cawood
Appointed Government Resident of Central Australia
11 December 1929 until 1931.
Appointed in June 1931 by Robert Wedell, the new Administrator of the Northern Territory, to be
District Officer and Assistant Administrator
Held this dual appointment in Alice Springs until 1942